Local Amateurs Help Boat In Distress

While W8DXH (Floyd Davis) was in contact with a station (W4QT) in Chattanooga, Tenn., an SOS distress call came in from a ship named "Mary" about 100 miles off Cape Henry. The gasoline tanks we re leaking and they were trying to contact the Coast Guard at Norfolk, Va., for help WBDXH got WBDXJ "Eb" File to go on the air/with his station and the three got the message to Coast Guard at Norfolk in about 20 minutes.

Every day throughout the world amateur radio stations play a great part in handling messages of all kinds, with no charge whatso-ever; maybe a flood such as the one along the Mississippi; a snow block such as the one a year ago in the west, or a boy in service trying to get a message home. Amateur radio gladly handles it.

County Draft Board Active

The Crawford County Sclective Service Board last Saturday received orders to have four men ready to receive a medical examination between July and August I, Clerk Clarence Johnson said.

The County Draft Board although continuing operation during the past two years, has become very active in the past few days as the Korean war situation brings a peace time draft back into being.

Since August, 1948, when peace time Selective Service went into effect 287 18-year-olds have registered with the Board and two were inducted into the armed forces for a year's active duty, draft board clerk Clarence Johnson announces.

draft board clerk Clarence Johnson announces.

He added that it appeared as though a number of 18-year-olds have not registered as they became of age in the past two years. He said the County Board urbes any youth who has reached 18 years of age since August, 1948 and has not registered to do so immediately as the penalty for failure to register is a $5,000 fine or 5 years imprisonment, or both. Registrants may register with Board members Alfred Hanson at his garage, Charles E. Moore at his office or James Post at the Grayling Post Office or with Clerk Johnson.

Graying Post Office or with Clerk Johnson.

Each youth reaching 18 years of age must register within ten days from that date or he may be prosecuted for failure to do so, it was explained. Likewise, all registrants must report to the board any change of address, or if married or if children are born to the family changing their status, Clerk Johnson said. This information is required upon the classification card which the registrant carries and must be on file with the Board in order that each registrant is properly classified.

No quota for draftees has been set as yet for Crawford County, it was said.

Summer Band Concerts

LeRoy Christian, director of the Grayling High Band, will direct some more of those entertaining summer band concerts starting Saturday, July 22nd. After a trip to Traverse City to the Cherry Festival, the band will prepare a series of summer concerts to be presented on the Court House lawn at 8 P. M.

This Saturday the band will play at the Gaylord Homecoming parade at 1:00 Saturday, July 22nd.

The complete program for the first Grayling concert is as follows: application of the AuSable Restaurant for an eight months liquor license. They discussed at some length the passing of an ordinance to have all Grayling eating places install a grease trap, due to sewer trouble which the city has been having. In several cases grease has been plugging sewers necessitating the digging up of them, cleaning and repatching with quite an expense to city, it was explained. No definite action was taken.

A petition signed by thirty busi-

A petition signed by thirty business people objecting to switch engines of the New York Central standing at the end of Michigan Avenue most of the day spewing smoke and dirt up the main street was discussed and City Manager Max Davenport told the Council that he had written a letter upon receipt of the petition to the railroad asking their co-operation in moving the engines to the edge of town when coaling up.

He also reported that he had been contacted by a representative of the Consumers Power Company—who—are attempting to purchase the Michigan Public Service Company—The matter is before the Michigan Public Utilities Commission and an answer is expected early in September. Manager Davenport was informed that if the sale was approved, Consumers could furnish in Grayling all electrical capacity that any new industry might need.

After a lenghty discussion, it was decided to advertise for bids for the installation of a fixed two-way radio station at the city light plant with radio sets in the Grayling police car the city trucks and the light plant truck. This would hurry the answering of complaints to the Police Department and line the light plant truck. This would hurry the answering of complaints to the Police Department and line trouble calls of the light plant. The other two city trucks were included because they will carry fire extinguishers and will answer fire calls first. If the fire is small, they will handle it, if it is too large a radio call to the light plant will bring a full fledged Fire Department siren-call.

will bring a full fledged Fire De partment siren call.

A warning was also issued on the apparent disregard of some motorists to the marked stop streets. The Grayling Police De partment have up to now gone easy on the runners-of stop street signs, but, they have now been ordered to crack down hard on all violators. This stand was taken after several near serious accidents have occurred as the result-of vehicles, racing through the plainly marked stop streets.

Are You Qualified?

During the next half dozen weeks you are going to hear a lot of political talk, facts and arguments. You also will be hit hard with party policies and the supposed reasons why you should vote Democratic or Republican as the case may be:

One good point that we can find for all political parties and candidates is their expressed desire that you register and that you vote. Even though they ask you to vote for them—they still express the desire that ou register and that you cast your ballot.

In our opinion, any citizen that is qualified to regster and to vote and does not do so, due to neglect or because they can't be bothered—should-not call themelves Americans. Voting is not only a privilege, it is a duty that you owe to your country your neighbors, yourself, yes, and to the candidates themselves.

People run for public office and expect to be elect-They wish to serve you and you should express our desire as to who does so.

If you are qualified and are not registered, do so at our first oppportunity. Then you, along with those already registered, go to the polls for the Fall Primary Election and let your choice be known. That is how a democracy works and the choice of all of the people should be expressed in our American elections—now more than ever before in view of the unsettled world

Russia makes much of the fact that only one-half of the American people voted in our last national elec-They make it sound as though several groups of Americans are kept from the polls. But the truth about neglect, the laziness of a large portion of our citizens on Election Day would be just as damning for us before the world, we feel.—R. W. S.

To, the eye does not tell everything not in this instance.

True, it tells you ROADMASTER is smart. It tells you it's big. It shows, if you watch closely, that this brawny beauty rides level and unperturbed even when roadroughness has its wheels fairly dancing.

A glance may even indicate how much lolling comfort there is here -what wide-open freedom passengers and driver know in this gay traveler.

But how can the eye tell you how you feel touching off the great power that's under this broad bonnet?"

How can it reveal the silken, swift-mounting surge of oil-cushioned take-off-smooth, silky, unbroken, as Dynaflow Drive works its magic?

Even when you watch a ROAD-MASTER settle down to a long steep pull and crest the top going away, how can it tell you what thrill your

Fort Wackinac Is Taken In Surprise Attack By British

Editor's Note: Today's news-Editor's Note: Today's newspaper readers. accept on-the-spot accounts of events as common place. This hasn't always been true. In the story below an event of July of 1812 has been roported in modern newspaper style. This is the second in a series of such stores based on eyo-witness accounts in books and other material in the Michigan Historical Collection at the University of Michigan.

Fort Mackinac, July 17, 1812— The British scored an important victory today without firing a shot.

A superior British force, commanded by Captain Charles Roberts, captured strategic Fort Mackinac, commanding the Straits. The British landed on the opposite side of Mackinac Island from the fort of Mackinac Island from the fort during the night and assumed a position dominating the defenses. Badly outnumbered and fearful of an Indian massacre if he offered resistance, Lieutenant Porter Hanks surrendered his tiny garrison of 57 men at noon. He had had not received word that the United States was at war with Great Britain. His attempts to confirm suspicions that something was happening had been folled when the British captured Captain Michael Dousman, of the militia, who was en route to observe Indian activities at St. Joseph's Isdian activities at St. Joseph's Island. A grave view of the situation is taken by American military obserers. The capture of Fort Mackinac is expected to swing Indian support to the British and may make it difficult for General William Hull to maintain the American positions at Detail and American positions at Detroit and across the river where Hull's forces have invaded Canada.

For today's surprise move, the British had assembled a force of Canadians and Indians at St. Journal of the street of t seph's island about 50 miles away seph's island about by miles away toward Sault Ste Marie. Estimates of the size of this force vary. In an official statement, Captain Roberts said he had 55 regular troops, about 150 Canadian militia and about 150 canadian initida and 300 Indians, or approximately 500 men. Other estimates went as high as 1,021 including 260 Canadian militia and 715 Indians, including Sioux, Winnebagoes, Menomonees, Chippewas and Ottavas

Lieutenant Hanks, who had received word that the inhabitants of the village were fleeing to a place of refuge had his garrison under arms and was ready for ection. However, when he dissovered the artillery on the helghts bove the fort and saw the "great numbers" of Indians in the edge of the woods, he decided against ordering his men to fire on the British. At 11:30 A. M., Captain Roberts sent in a flag of truce, demanding the surrender of the fort. Roberts sent in a flag of truce, demanding the surrender of the fort. This, actually, was Lieutenant Hanks' first information in regard to a declaration of war. Three American prisoners who accompanied the flag of truce told Lieutenant Hanks that the British force numbered up to 900 to 1,000. After consulting with his officers, he decided it was best to surrender to avoid a complete massacre of the garrison.

POLIO PRECAUTIONS

The way to the Part

POLIO IS AROUND, the National Foundation for Infantile Farslysis recommends these simple precautions: Keep children with their own friends and away from people they have not been with right along. Don't become exhausted through work or hard play. Don't stay too long in cold water or sit around in wet clothes. And always wash hands before eating. Watch for feverishness, sore throat, headache, upset stomach or sore muscles. They may—or may not—mean—polio. Call your doctor and then, if help is needed contact the National Foundation Chapter in your area.
